Mission Statement:

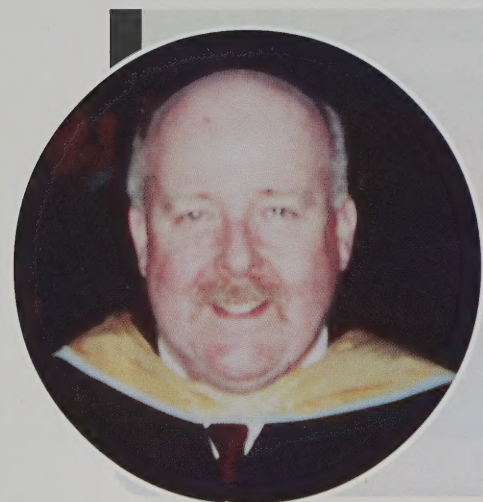

St. Bernard's Central Catholic High School, the Diocesan Catholic high School in North Worcester County, proudly educates its students in a Christ-centered, student-focused, college preparatory environment. By providing a safe and structured academic climate, St. Bernard's recognizes and promotes each student's unique gifts and talents, in both the curricular and extracurricular realms. A St. Bernard's education builds a bridge to the future, while maintaining ties to the school's rich past. In doing so, St. Bernard's strives to produce community leaders who embrace the school's maxim, "Love One Another".

Four short years ago, the young class of 2002 timidly rushed through the halls of St. Bernard's. We began high school in our own worlds, worlds that we believed no one would want to be a part of. Yet somehow in this struggle, we found common ground; we realized that we were all excited for what challenges we would be faced with and dreamed of what the future would hold. As the first dreadful weeks of our lives as Saints drifted into the unforgettable times of our lives, we bonded, as no one thought possible. Through trust, support, commitment, respect, and love, we discovered that we held the power to make our own dreams come true. By sharing a fun-loving spirit and an eagerness to help one another, we became a class like no other. We have never hesitated to help one another overcome obstacles that we knew we would encounter or the surprises we stumbled upon along the way. As the Class of 2002 we have changed, moving from those wide-eyed freshman to the confident seniors who proudly roamed the halls where so many memories have been made. In years to come, we will remember the times we have had, and exactly what it took for us to realize that no matter where we walked we would never be alone. By cherishing the memories we have made in the past and guiding each other into what lies ahead, the Class of 2002 will forever be Looking Forward To Looking Back.

Dedication

Thanking those who have helped us along the way

Looking Back on our past experiences at St. Bernard's, we cannot help but recall the innumerable people who have touched our lives. Some of the fondest memories we have are of our teachers, those who have shaped who we have become in more ways than one. Over the years we have repeatedly shown appreciation to some, yet the kindness shown by others has been overlooked. This year, the class of 2002 would like to thank Mr. Haverty for his voluntary involvement in our lives from the beginning of our high school careers. Mr. Haverty, an alumnus of St. Bernard's, has been teaching at the school for the past 16 years. Many of us took his classes in our freshman and sophomore years and valued the constructive criticism that was essential to the understanding of the course. He added a personal touch to the course by connecting recent events with historical occurrences and added a relaxed element through all of those Twilight Zone episodes that gave us new insight to the world. Since having Mr. Haverty for a teacher, we cannot pass by his door without receiving a warm and friendly greeting or a question about the current events in our lives. Mr. Haverty has made an incredible effort to be a part of our lives by attending events that we have been involved in and making copies of news articles that we have appeared in and supporting us in those endeavors, no matter what the outcome. Mr. Haverty's mild, humble manner has made him easy to talk to whether it was about a school-related problem or a fight with a friend. Not a day has gone by that Mr. Haverty hasn't been there to offer us a high-five or a quick pun after a stressful day at school. The Class of 2002 appreciates the support that Mr. Haverty has given us and looks forward to using the advice he has given us in the years ahead. Thank you, Mr. Haverty, for being such a wonderful part of some of the greatest times that have turned in to the fondest memories. Your kindness and compassion will not be forgotten.

LOOKING FORWARD TO LOOKING BACK

By sharing a fun-loving spirit and an eagerness to help one another, we became a class like no other. We have never hesitated to help one another overcome obstacles that we knew we would encounter or the surprises we stumbled upon along the way. As the Class of 2002 we have changed, moving from those wide-eyed freshman to the confident seniors who proudly roamed the halls where so many memories have been made. In years to come, we will remember the times we have had, and exactly what it took for us to realize that no matter where we walked we would never be alone.

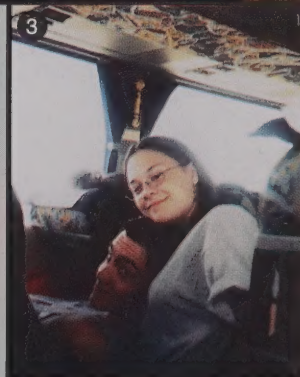

1 Cameron Leel and Kerry McGuire show off their moves at a dance.

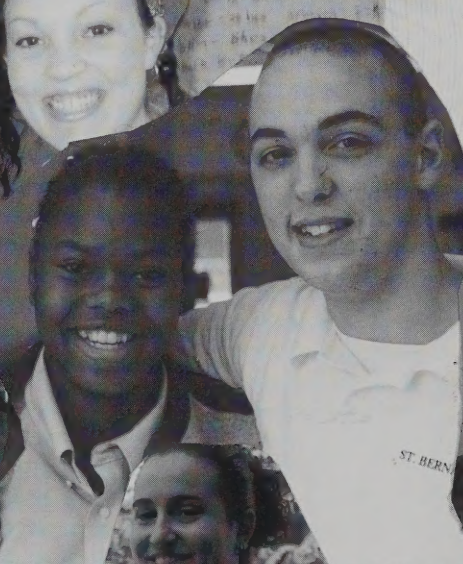

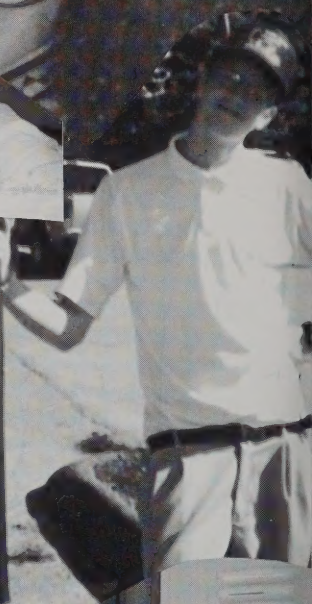

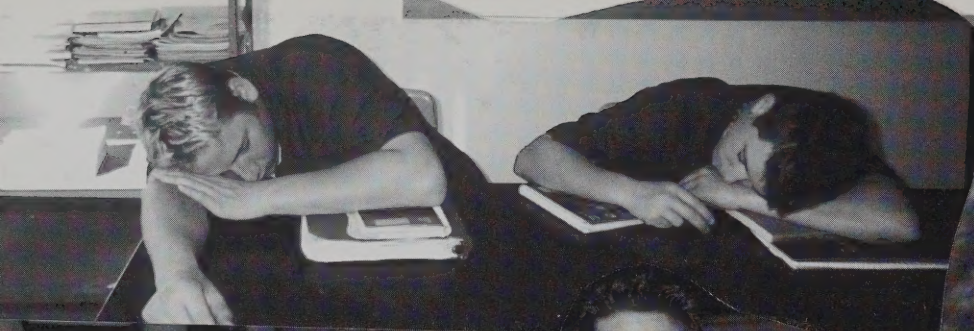

2 Forever friends...Juli Quinn and Amanda Luft look ready to paint the town red.

3 Mike Landry and Cyndy Smetana pass the time together on a bus ride.

SENIORS

A Night of Disguise!

~Freshman Senior Night~2001~

Clockwise from top right: Jaquoya Carreiro always wanted a male fairy godmother. Aloha, freshman! Seniors aren't so bad, are they? #53 appears puzzled during the blank obstacle course. Aeree Rhee's freshman thinks she is as sweet as honey.

~Two Hours of Fun and Laughter~

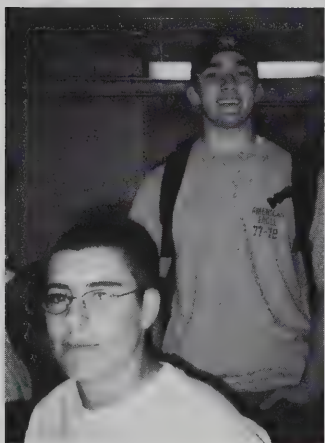

Clockwise from top left: Brandice French, Claire Bagley, Julia Bishop and Elizabeth Garber enjoy the festivities of the evening. Look at the disguises we came up with! Sonny and Cher perform for everyone. Be careful cowboy Tuan Nguyen, the wizzard might cast a spell on you! Our impression of the Blueman Group. Amanda Paridise is Raggedy Ann's #1 fan! These freshman appear to enjoy grazing. James Higgins embraces his freshman.

The Good Ol' Days

Our Freshman and Sophomore Years 1998~2000.

Remember the way we used to be?

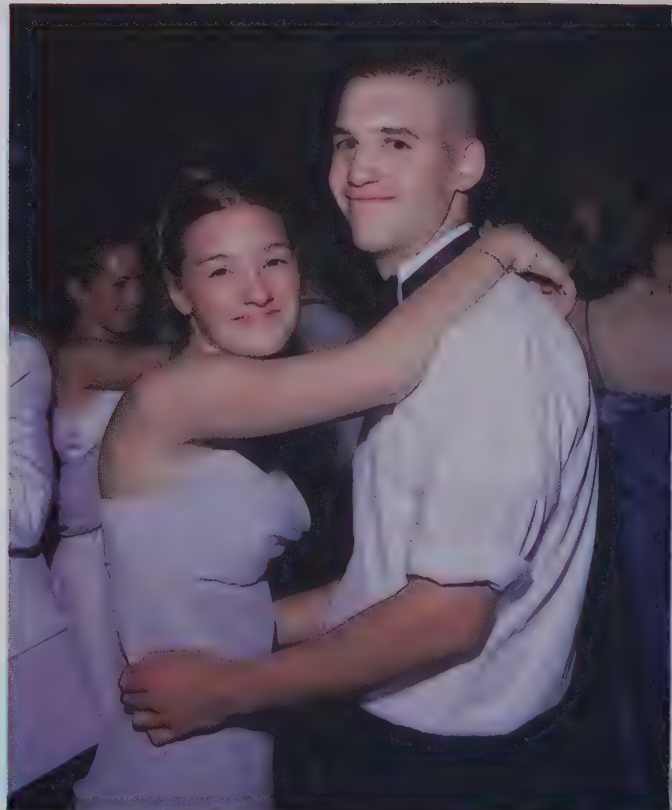

Clockwise from top left: Erika Landry , Nadi Son, and Jamie Bland cut class for a picture. Christina Spano, Jestine Bettencourt, and Angelina Lake are ready for fun at the Sophomore Barbeque. Steph Poison shows off her smile on the way to class. Meaghan Ingraham, Meaghan Oskirko, and Kerry McGuire gather for a quick squeeze on the way to class. Elizabeth Garber and Christina Nicaastro help set up for a night of events. Pam Woolfrey, Lindsey Massengale, Elizabeth Wright, Tina Caru, Jackie Racine, and Dana Zimei get together after school. Megan Piermarini, Jen McLamore, Latonya Grady, Colleen Maloughney, and Jen LaBerge pile on the work. Brie Shell and Jaquoya Carreiro share a hug before the bell.

Moonlight Magic

Junior Prom May 5, 2001

Clockwise from top right: The Prom Court: Princess Jen Athanas, Prince Jay DiFederico, Queen Deonne O'Connor, King Bill Watkin, Prince Nick Cavioli, and Princess Kristen Whitam. Amanda Hall and Jay Kumorek smile as they spend the evening together. Jaimin Malaviya and Jestine Bettencourt share a slow dance under the stars. Lesley Corda and Cyndy Smetana take it easy between songs.

The Dance Went Late Into the Night

Clockwise from top left: Tiffany Matozel and Lindsey Massengale pose for the camera between songs. Nicola Fanelli, Megan Moran, and Monica Espitia flash their smiles before hitting the dance floor. A night under the stars wouldn't be complete without a friend; Shelby Peterson and Julia Bishop. They like to think that they need no introduction, but we'll leave that up to you. Kim Quarella and Keith Bartelson wait for their dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Conry share the special night with the Juniors. What a ladies man- Dan Fiandaca with Colleen Maloughney on the left and Jamie Bland on the right. Jen Koehler, Pam Woolfrey, Mary Maruszewski, and Juli Quinn practice their smiles for professional pictures.

Fun in The Sun

~Two Hours of Fun and Laughter~

Clockwise from top left: Danielle Terry participates in Miss Castellani's class. Melissa Pothier and Jen Zink made their freshmen wear crazy hats on hat day during freshman-senior-week. Due to much studying the night before, Tom Kane finds it hard to stay awake during class. Gus Vallancourt and Ryan Secino look back upon their high school careers as they head to a college fair. Dan Fiandaca explains how things go down around school. Ross Jarvis gets the look from Megan Moran. Athena Donnelly encourages freshman to get to know one another at Freshman Orientation. An enthusiastic Mark Sawyer and Zaza Shamsedin enjoy a class lecture.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Juniors ~ Class of 2003

As juniors, we are a year away from our graduating year, and many of us have been here since freshman year. During this time, we have been able to form relationships that will stay a part of our lives long after we have graduated. A lot of things have happened in the time that has passed here at STB, some good, some not as good. Despite the many memories, we still look forward to making many more memories in our final times here at STB.

Sophomores~ Class of 2004

Sophomore year brings the class together as a whole. New friendships blossom and old friendships grow. The year brings good times and found memories that will always be cherished and remembered. In order to succeed throughout the year, one must put forth effort and hard work. When we look back, we hope to find that, in the end, the experience of our achievements in the second year of high school was highly rewarding.

Underclassmen

LOOKING FORWARD TO LOOKING BACK

When we graduate from St. Bernard's, we will begin to appreciate the extraordinary teachers we have had here. Our teachers make it a point to see us through our good times as well as our bad. Hopefully we will begin to acknowledge each of the challenges that our teachers have given us and the lessons they have taught us. All too often, our teachers go unnoticed and not appreciated, but we will be sure not to forget what they taught us when we look back on high school.

1 Mr. Duynstee works diligently preparing lessons for his Political Science class.

2 Mr. Anderson and Mr. Costello show of their "glamorous" style on the Boston trip.

ON THE JOB

Counterclockwise from above: Students from Mr. Formato's Physics Class attend a field trip to show that knowledge extends far beyond the classroom. Mr. Laliberte gives the freshman a hand to start their high school careers off in a fun way. Fr. Thien blesses the rings during the Jr. Ring Ceremony. Mr. Driscoll and Shelby Peterson show how glad they are to be able to count on one another.

Above: McGuirk, Mrs. Garber, Mrs. Raymond, and Mrs. Boudreau show respect for the flag during a memorial ceremony for the victims of the September 11th attacks.

Academic Awards Night

May 16, 2001

"Focus on things you can do something about, and don't worry about the rest."

"Prioritize and manage your time so that your first things come first, not last."

"Reading on a wide range of subjects and topics is one of the most effective ways to improve your vocabulary."

From top to bottom: John Balboni and Mr. Formato share a joke as John receives his book award. Soo-In Chae modestly accepts his certificate from Mr. Bierden. Mr. Blanchard extends his hand to Michael Craven as he gives him his book award. Marianne Pickering graciously accepts her award from Mrs. McCaffery.

LOOKING FORWARD TO LOOKING BACK

Sports. They are about heart. They are about desire. They are about pride. Anyone who has ever participated in a sport knows the kind of commitment that goes into it and has seen the rewards recieved during the season. Looking back on past seasons, a sense of belonging and team unity stand out as a positive aspect of our experince in St Bernard's sports. The memories of intense victories, crushing losses, and spectacular plays stay forever in a person's heart.

● Ricky Sleeper is ready to strike out a player at first with his golden arm.

● Iku Matsumoto shows that concentration leads to sucess as she volleys the ball across the net.

● With a look of confidence, Sam Chery clears the pole on his high jump.

LOOKING FORWARD TO LOOKING BACK

Clubs. They are about commitment. They are about motivation. They are about friendship. They are about overcoming challenges as an individual within a group, not all alone. Anyone who has ever been involved in a club realizes that they are a vital part to STB life because they give so much character to this school. The feeling of friendship and belonging given to an individual upon joining a club is indescribable. The variety of clubs may never be limited so long as people seek new challenges and continue to act upon their passions in life.

LOOKING FORWARD TO LOOKING BACK

School is not just a place to learn. It is a place to make friends, learn more about them, and to grow as an individual. Dances, retreats, and ceremonies are a great place to start. Not only do they allow students to come together as a whole, but they also help us learn about ourselves and the people that we strive to become. No matter what the event is, we know that the true Bernardian spirit will shine forth in all of our actions through the ways we interact with one another. As the years pass and we take time to look back on high school, we will hopefully remember what it meant to be a Saint.

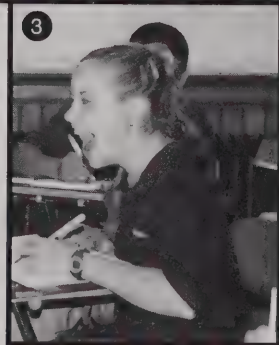

1 Jen Koehler is amazed by the height of the buildings in Boston on the Magazine Drive Trip.

2 Mr. Watkin and members of the Junior Class went caroling at a nearby nursing home during Christmastime.

3 Amy Lang's enthusiasm in the classroom is apparent by the expression on her face.

THE LIFE OF A SAINT

SEPTEMBER 11TH, 2001

The world as we knew it had been changed by tragedy, but the patriotic spirit of Americans had been renewed. During the weeks following these events, the St. Bernard's community used a variety of methods to convey their feelings about the events that occurred. Students repainted the clubhouse, sold bracelets, and had a prayer service to remember all those affected.

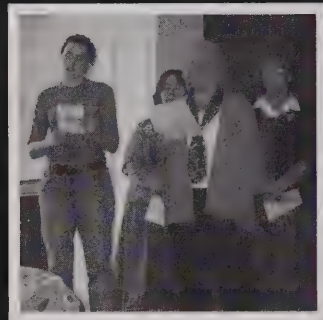

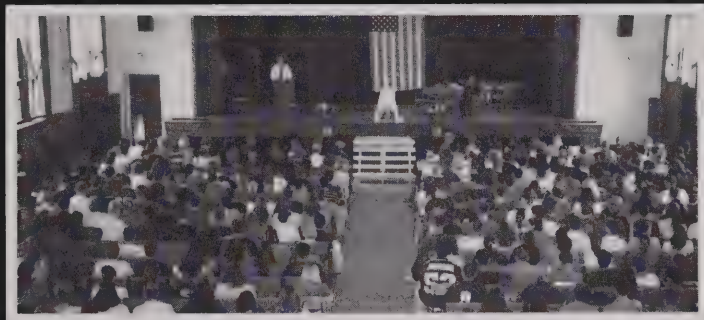

Above: Lindsey Meszaros, Heather Sampson, Christine Coakley, Margaux Bujold, Melissa Pandiscio, and Kerry White gather together to remember the victims and their families.
Right: Proud to be American Saints...the Senior Class decided to repaint the clubhouse in red, white, and blue.

Right: Mr. Costello and Sr. Clara are patriotic faculty members.

Clockwise from top left: Representatives from the police and fire department show reverence to the flag while Mr. Driscoll and Fr. Thien are attentive to the ceremony. The student body is arrayed in red, white, and blue as they assemble in the auditorium. Deonne O' Connor, Mrs. Boudreau, Mrs. Garber, and Mrs. Raymond sing songs of patriotism and comfort. A patriotic freshman hung this symbol of America on their senior's locker during Freshman- Senior Week. Students are attentive for the recession. A longshot of the clubhouse.

HOMECOMING

November 3, 2001 marked a great time at the Bernardian Bowl and Activity Center. The annual tradition of Homecoming took place, and it was a great time for everyone who participated. The Homecoming Court and football cheerleaders were brought onto the field by cars and trucks decorated in blue and gold. The dance that followed the victorious football game was a fun event, as it brought our school community together for a great time.

RING CEREMONY

The Class of 2003 gathered on October 29, 2001 to celebrate the progression of their high school careers. They marked this achievement with personalized class rings and a slide show of the memories they have made in their past high school years. For many Juniors, this event marked the transition from underclassmen to the mature upperclassmen they have yet to become.

Clockwise from top left: Brian Sawyer talks about being a Junior and what it means to get a class ring. Peter Gagne is excited to receive his class ring. Father Tien addresses the students, parents, and faculty. Anthony Lively, Junior Class President, proudly accepts his ring from Mr. Bierden. Christina Beuregard looks at how beautiful her ring is. Melissa Pandiscio returns to her seat after receiving her ring. David Roy can't wait to open his ring box.

THE MAGAZINE DRIVE

The Magazine Drive was a fun way to raise money for our school this fall. We raised enough money, over $75,000, to get a day off from school. Students that sold over $320 worth of magazines earned a day trip to Boston, to shop, eat, and see Blue Man Group. Other prizes were money, candy, stuffed animals and two weeks out of dress code.

Above: At the Magazine Drive Rally, our drive representative entices student participation by displaying numerous prizes.
Right: Mr. Costello and Craig Leger seem to have made some new friends...they fit right in, except for the blue faces!

Above: Wearing toilet paper in her hair (as it is the Blue Men tradition), Audrey Arnold and classmate Meaghan Oskirko were thrilled to meet the Blue Men.
Right: Colleen Maloughney and Ben Leger smile in the morning sun as they anticipate a full day of excitement in Boston.

Clockwise from top left: Kat Bishop and Jenn Amburgey are so happy to have been kissed by the Blue Men. The underclassmen bus is quiet as they wisper about their Boston experience. Surely Erika Landry is happier to get a day off from school than she looks! Pat Boudreau and Mike Benjamin got a "faceful" from the Blue Men after the performance. Aimee Fredette and Jessica Couture wait for their meal at the Hard Rock Cafe. A Blue Man cozies up to Sean Mc Guirk. The Seniors on the trip gather at Quincy Marketplace.

FATHER- DAUGHTER DANCE

Throughout all four years of high school, Seniors have had many people touch their lives. Many girls have had a key male figure to guide their way, and this dance was a way to show appreciation for all they have done for them. Held at Oak Hill Country Club, this dance will surely be a night that all who attended will remember.

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

There are many events at St. Bernard's that seem to get lost in the shuffle, especially around big holidays. During the Christmas season, students have always given of themselves to help others, but this became quite obvious this year with the numerous fundraisers and activities to help those less fortunate than ourselves. Despite the commercialism of the season, the true meaning of Christmas shone through in all of our actions.

CHRISTMAS DANCE

On December 21, 2001, students, faculty, and friends of STB gathered at the Italian-American center for an incredible night. In gorgeous gowns and handsome suits, we crowded the dance floor to celebrate the fast-approaching holiday. After food and pictures, there was nothing left to do but enjoy ourselves, making memories that we would be happy to look back on.

Right: Mr. Costello and Bill "The Grinch" Watkin look like they would make a pretty tough team.

Clockwise from top left: Kaitlyn Lemoine and Jason Lucier are read for a fun night of dancing. Alex Ryan and his date know what their favorite part of the dance is- the food! Ross Gavin and Michaela Crowley can't wait to clear the dance floor. Groups of students cram the dance floor to dance the night away. Ashley Tavner and Krista Bernard fool around in between dances. Christina Seretto, Gerald Heman, David Paine and Jestine Herman wait in line at the door of the Italian-American center. Nick Novak, Ricky Lyons, and Matt Prendergast know that sometimes the girls just want to have fun.

MASSSES AND RETREATS

Our school prides itself in its rich religious tradition. Many times during the year, there are various celebrations and solemn times where masses and prayer services are celebrated. To further the religious enhancement that St. Bernard's provides, all students are required to go on retreats. Seniors are given a chance to bond on an overnight retreat, conducted at LaSalette Shrine. Throught this time of religous reflections, seniors became closer to God and one another.

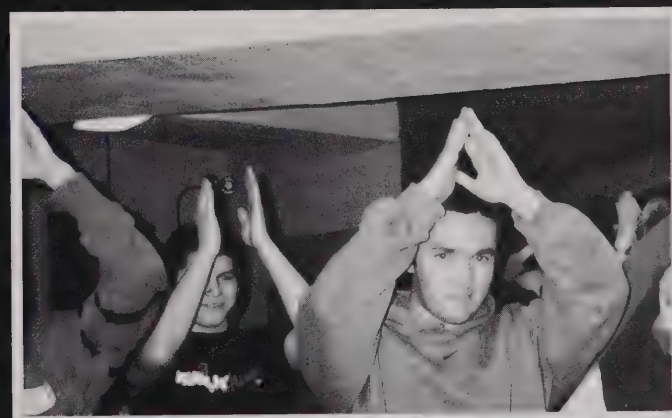

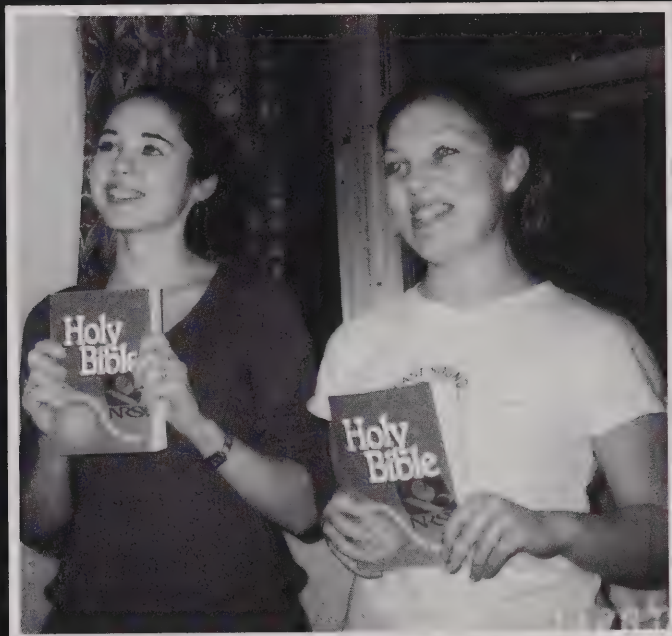

Above: Erika Landry and Matthew Benoit listen as Fr. Dan celebrates mass at their retreat. Right: The seniors reverently make their way around the labyrinth.

Clockwise from top left: Jen Zink participates in a game that has her laughing out loud. Members of the Junior class are attentive during a prayer service. Karen leads Esra Bay around the room. Lindsee Gendron and Natalie Toomey say their bedtime prayers. Ben Havlin and Mark Sawyer get into a song. Amanda Luft has a blast on the retreat. Mrs. Raymond and Amanda Paradise share a moment with each other as the night concludes.

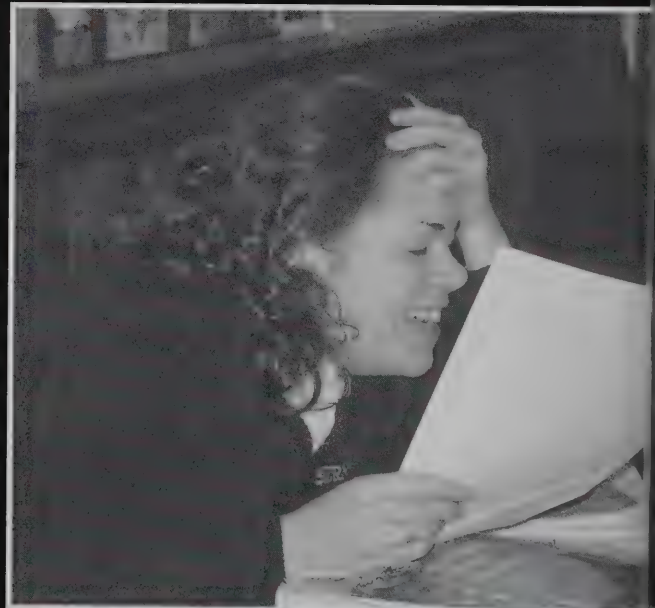

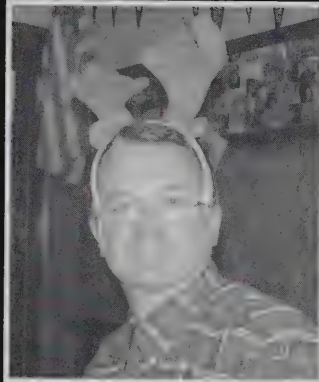

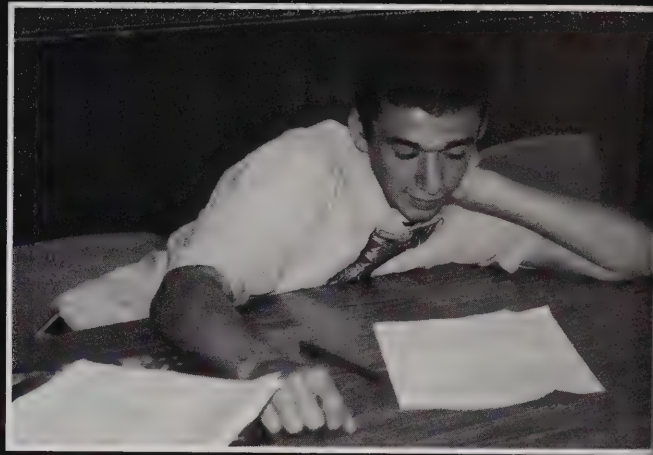

LOOKING BACK

The atmosphere at St. Bernard's is one unmatched by other schools. Various acts of kindness, compassion, and love go unnoticed daily through the small things that students, faculty, and staff do for one another in and out of the building. Freshmen entering St. Bernard's quickly adjust to this atmosphere, while graduating Seniors leave with a memory of the Bernardian spirit within them.

So much to say and just a lifetime left to say it.
How quickly time passes.
If I had my way, I'd keep you safe within my arms
While the storm of life crashes.
I won't always be with you, my child, but words I can give.
When the winds of hope are dying down, these words will live.
Above all else, know God's the One who will never leave you.
Look to Him above all else.
He is love you can depend upon, a heart set to care.
If in the darkest night you should be lost, He will be there.
He's the Everlasting Father,
In His hands you'll never fall.
He's the one who holds it all,
Above all else.
He's the Author of your laughter,
He's the Keeper of your tears,
He's the One who you must fear
Above all else.
He's the Giver of the kingdom
Bought for you right from the start,
And He'll ask you for your hearts
Above all else.

So much to say
And not enough time left to say it.
Just love the Lord
Above all else.

CONGRATULATIONS JONATHAN AND THE CLASS OF 2002

From the first day of kindergarten to the last day of senior year you traveled a long hard road.
Mom and Dad are very proud of the choices you've made and the person you've become.

Always remember as you take on the world after graduation day...

It is not the potter nor the potter's wheel, but the intrinsic worth of the clay.

Love,

Congratulations, John!

Take time to Think. It is the source of Power.
Take time to Play. It is the secret of perpetual Youth.
Take time to be Friendly. It is the road to Happiness.

Take time to Work. It is the price of Success.
Take time to Pray. It is the greatest power on Earth.
Take time to Love and be Loved.

It is the way of God.

We are very proud of you.
Good luck with your future.
We will always be there for you.

PAM

There is no one who is more dedicated or who works harder than you do.
We are so very proud of all of your accomplishments- especially the countless, selfless acts that go unnoticed. Keep working for Justice and Peace.

The world will be thankful to have you in charge!

An Irish Blessing

Always remember to forget the things that made you sad,
But never forget to remember the things that made you glad.
Always remember to forget the friends that have proved untrue,
But never forget to remember those that have stuck by you.
Always remember to forget the troubles that passed away,
But never forget to remember the blessings that come each day.

God Bless You Little Star!

Bill,

We stand in awe of who you have become.

We cheer as you venture into a brilliant future.

*You have lived the Watkin Family motto: "Saiz and Doe"

*You have also been true to the Barry family motto: "Boutez en Avant" ***

You speak with a Christian heart and you live what you speak!

You embody faith, hope, courage, joy, determination, generosity, and compassion.

We could not be more proud as we send you out into the world.

You will be in our hearts and you will have our prayers always.

We know you'll make a difference wherever you go.

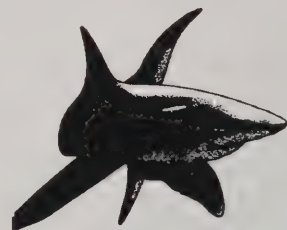

So, "Go Make A Difference..."

Love,

Bryan, Thomas,

Corie, Kate,

MAX

Along with the entire St. Bernard's community, the staff of the Bernardian would like to express our condolences to Mr. Formato for the loss of his beloved companion, Max. To us, Max was a symbol of the Bernardian spirit, and his presence in and around our school campus brought joy to our lives. Max's loyalty to Mr. Formato also mirrored the school maxim, "Love One Another." As the years pass, we will remember Max as a positive influence on our high school years. We are so happy that we were able to share in the deep friendship between Mr. Formato and Max. God Bless.
